

GRIEF AND TRAUMA PSYCHOTHERAPIST – CHILD AND ADULT (Full-Time)

Working at Wendt is rewarding, dynamic, educational, challenging, and inspiring. If you share our organizational values of healing, kindness, collaboration, and life-long learning then come join our team! We are centered on connection, prioritize employee well-being, and create opportunities to support your ideas and passion. Our commitment to support our highly valued employees includes:

- Being paid a competitive starting salary ($75 - $80k) that includes paid lunch and paperwork time and is not impacted by no-shows and cancellations
- A hybrid work environment
- Paid sick, vacation and bereavement time along with 20 additional holidays days off (including the week between Christmas and New Years)
- Health, dental, vision, and retirement matching benefits
- Ongoing CEU training and a generous professional development allowance
- High quality clinical and peer supervision and support

Be part of a team of mental health professionals who combine their expertise in grief and trauma with their passion for providing high quality services and offering a pathway to healing for all!

Key Responsibilities:

Provide high-quality grief and trauma focused psychotherapy to diverse child and adult clients via a combination of in-person and teletherapy services.

- Provide short and long-term grief and trauma counseling services to children, youth, and adults individually and in groups
- Provide in-person services at least one day per week at our office in Northwest DC
- Provide evening services at least one day per week
- Provide teletherapy services from home in a confidential workspace
- Utilize EHR to maintain complete clinical case records and schedule including clinical notes, assessments, treatment plans, diagnoses, records, etc., meeting agency standards and deadlines

Qualifications:

- LICSW/LPC - must have and maintain an independent District of Columbia mental health license (LICSW or LPC Only) and be eligible to acquire Virginia and Maryland licensure
- Minimum of 2 years of experience providing individual therapy to children, youth, and adults
- Proven professional background working in trauma, grief, and loss
- Must have ability to provide teletherapy services from home in a confidential space

The Wendt Center for Loss and Healing is an equal employment opportunity employer and is committed to maintaining a non-discriminatory work environment. The Wendt Center does not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), national origin, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, sexual orientation, or any other characteristic protected by applicable law.